EVERCRETE joins ROADEX 2006–
The most important UAE event for the road industry, March 12–15, 2006

January 23rd, 2006, Evercrete is excited to announce their presence at the forthcoming international road industry event, ROADEX 2006, March 12-15, in Abu Dhabi, UAE.

A platform for the demonstration of innovative state-of-the-art technologies and practices, ROADEX 2006 brings together leading contractors, developers, suppliers and highway and transportation officials under one roof. Dedicated to roads, tunnels, bridges, traffic and parking, ROADEX 2006 aims to promote various development prospects and address key issues related to the region's national networks.

“Participation in ROADEX 2006 is an excellent opportunity for Evercrete to establish new clients and exposure to both construction companies and trade visitors. We are looking forward to demonstrating our extensive product range, including our Deep Penetrating Sealer (DPS) product recently awarded the coveted Venetian Macau Hotel Tower project”, said Leonorah Glatthaar, Managing Director of Evercrete International (Asia).
