EVERCRETE'S EVERWOOD

Chosen by the Hong Kong Government to Protect its Heritage on Lantau's Wisdom Path

Evercrete is delighted to announce that the Hong Kong Government has chosen Evercrete's Everwood to protect and maintain 38 famous timber columns standing between 8 to 10 meters high and have calligraphy by sinologist scholar Jao Tsung-I, against moisture, termites, insect, fungus and mould attacks as well as germs.

This famous Hong Kong tourist attraction is located at Wisdom Path at Ngong Ping on Lantau island close to the Po Lin Monastery and was open to the public in May 2005.

Evercrete's exclusive Hong Kong distributor Galaxy Contracting Limited will start the application works towards the end of 2006.
